Full job description

Your new company

Originally from the UK, this contractor has gone from strength to strength. Delivering projects from $50k- $5m, they work on behalf of almost all the major rail operators and Tier 1 contractors. They deliver everything from small track work, platforms, stations, services, utilities. With 3 separate construction divisions, they have grown significantly and have a strong pipeline of work and a very aggressive yet achievable growth plan for the next 5 years.

Your new role

This is a senior role and are looking for someone who is as enthusiastic, driven and keen to help grow this company as much as they are. You will have a strong construction background, and a real understanding of the projects from a ground level. Not so much the financial aspect but the day to day activities of how projects go together on the ground. All candidates must have worked for a Tier 2, 3 or 4 contractor, with exposure to civils, small structures around that $100k- $5m, Rail exposure would be advantageous.

This is a unique opportunity to become the new GM / Ops Manager of the business, something rare in today's market. An opportunity to drive and grow an organisation,

You will have 4 reports yourself, and report directly to one of the 2 Directors.

Coming from a hands on background you will be comfortable in;

- working in a subcontractor environment
- driving the civil division
- organising and setting up construction teams to deliver successfully
- how projects are delivered at this level

- budgets, procurement
- build maintain a team culture
- maintaining strong relationships with clients
- managing a small team of engineers and supervisors who will deliver the works

What you'll need to succeed

You will ideally have a degree in a construction / engineering related degree, or have worked your way up from the trade level.. Experience working for a Tier 2, 3, or 4 contractor Experience in delivering medium sized projects $100k- $5m Experience in civil, small structures, building works, and ideally Rail would be beneficial

What you'll get in return You will work for a close knit team here in Melbourne, but one with a overseas presence. You will join a business that has a clear and positive plan for the next 5 years. A senior position that reports directly to the company Director where your ideas are heard, and you can have a real impact on the growth of a business.
