Full job description

Your new company

Hays are currently working with a large multi-national organisation who have an exciting opportunity for a Business Systems Analyst to join their team in Newcastle.

Your new role

As the successful Business Systems Analyst you will be responsible for the administration and support of HR/Payroll applications as well as for ensuring sufficient technical documentation is developed and updated. In line with change management processes, you will identify opportunities for improvements and see those through from approval to the implementation.

This position would suit someone who is keen to stay on top of IT trends and is driven to provide business process improvements through technology.

What you'll need to succeed

- Proven experience in business systems analysis
- Extensive experience supporting and configuring HR/Payroll modules, ideally within SAP
- The ability to deliver projects to tight timelines in a fast paced environment
- Excellent written and verbal communication skills with the ability to liaise with stakeholders across various departments
- Experience in SAP FI/RI, HTML5/UI5 and Power BI will be highly regarded

What you'll get in return

This is a great opportunity to join a team environment on a 6 month contract, where employees are supported and encouraged to achieve their professional aspirations and fulfil their potential.
